WANTED IMMEDIATELY .- A boy some 16 or 17 years old, who has a tolerably good education, and possesses a good moral character, to learn the printing business. None other need apply.

We spent most of Christmas week In the country, where we enjoyed ourself to the utmost degree. To one so closely confined as we are compelled to be, by the rigorous demands of our business, which requires our constant personal attention, a visit to the country is indeed like an oasis in a desert, and contrasts most pleasantly with the routine through which we have to pass when at our office. We had 4th, do. T. T. Farmer; 5th, do, T. M. the pleasure of attending several social Duff; 6th, do, F. S. Beaumont; 7th, do, barrel. parties, where we were surrounded by a throng of pretty girls and gallant young men, for which Montgomery County is so noted; and "Cupid the little god of happy lovers spread his glittering pinions and wafted the balm of love to the hearts of alt." We did not entirely escape his darts, though we are not mortally wounded. But Christmas with its pleasant parties, and merry balls has passed away, and we are Tenn.
